Which Translation?

(2 Corinthians 3:1-3)

Introduction: 1. There was a time when the only Bible that people ever heard was when they attended worship services.

- 2. Prior to the invention of the printing press, Bible's were scarce.
- 3. However, since Gutenberg's press, the Bible has been the most published book in the history of the world.
- 4. Today, a typical family may possess more than a dozen Bibles.
- 5. Also with the passing of time, many versions of the Bible have been produced, some better than others.
- 6. This proliferation of translations has caused more than a little debate about which translation should one use.
- 7. In this lesson, I would like to focus our attention on one translation in particular.

I. Your Translation

- A. Did you know you have your own translation?
- B. (2 Corinthians 3:1-3).
- C. You are the only Bible that many people read before they develop an interest in Jesus.
- D. That being the case, maybe we would be well served if we began taking a closer look at our own translation.

II. What Should One Desire In A Translation

- A. Reverence.
 - 1. (Hebrews 12:9, 28).
 - 2. (Malachi 1:6).
- B. Clarity.
 - 1. (1 Corinthians 14:19).
 - 2. (Matthew 5:37).
- C. Faithfulness
 - 1. (Romans 2:1-24).
 - 2. (1 Corinthians 11:1).
 - 3. (Acts 26:27-29).

Conclusion:

- 1. Friends, what do people learn about God when they read your translation?
- 2. Do they read a clear, reverent, and faithful translation of God's word?
- 3. Don't overlook the fact that you may be the only Bible that some people read.
- 4. Give care to the translation you are writing.
