What Have I Done to You?

(Micah 6:1-8)

- Introduction: 1. Micah chapter 6 sets the stage for a rather interesting court case.
 - 2. God -vs- the People.
 - 3. As we consider this case before us, ask yourself if you would be named as a defendant in this trial.

I. God Calls for a Trial

- A. (Micah 6:1-2).
- B. He calls the Earth, itself, as a witness.
- C. And he invites his people to plead their case, but before they do, he makes his case.

II. God's Defense

- A. (Micah 6:1-5).
- B. "What have I done to you?"
- C. (1 Samuel 17:29).
- D. God reviewed his generosity.
 - 1. He brought them out of Egypt.
 - 2. He gave them freedom.
 - 3. He gave them godly leaders.
 - 4. He delivered them from their enemies.

III. The People's Reply

- A. (Micah 6:6-7).
- B. How can we please you?
 - 1. Burnt offerings?
 - 2. Thousands of rams?
 - 3. Our firstborn child?

IV. The Judgment

- A. (Micah 6:8).
- B. God has already shown them what they needed to do.
- C. This shouldn't be a mystery (Isaiah 55:8).
- D. Here is what the Lord requires.
 - 1. Do justly.
 - 2. Love mercy.
 - 3. Walk humbly with God.

Conclusion:

- 1. While the details of the law we serve under might be different, these principles are still true today.
- 2. May God help us, as we close out this year, and begin a new one, to focus upon these three obligations.
