

Speaking to One Another in Psalms

(Psalm 11)

- Introduction:
1. Throughout the year, we will be examining several of the Psalms.
 2. This series will not be done on consecutive weeks but will be scattered throughout the year.
 3. We live in a time in which long-held moral values have been overthrown by what was once considered profane, fringe elements of our society.
 4. Recent National Headlines:
 - a. "US Schools to Teach Transgenderism in Schools."
 - b. "Children's Drag Queen Story Hour Set in Public Libraries."
 - c. Why Serial Monogamy is Replacing Traditional Marriage."
 - d. "Fewer People Than Ever Believe the Bible is the Word of God."
 5. Many feel helpless and don't know what to do about it.
 6. Psalm 11 provides the answer to our question, "If the foundations are destroyed, what can the righteous do?"

I. Remember the Believers Security

- A. (Psalm 11:1-3).
- B. Ills. the Essenes.
- C. (Matthew 5:13-16).
- D. Christianity doesn't need a favorable environment to thrive.
- E. (Matthew 7:13-14).
- F. (Habakkuk 3:16-19).

II. Remember the Sovereignty of God

- A. (Psalm 11:4-7).
- B. God is still on his throne (Psalm 11:4).
 1. (Hebrews 2:8-9).
 2. While all things are subject to Jesus, we do not yet see their subjection.
- C. God sees what is being done (Psalm 11:5).
- D. Justice will prevail (Psalm 11:6-7).

- Conclusion:
1. So, what are the righteous to do when the foundations are destroyed?
 2. The same thing they've always done...Be faithful to the Lord.
 3. Pray for boldness, wisdom, and strength to navigate yourself and your family through the maze of unrighteousness.